Jodi Lisa

Lisa Yes - hey Jodi

Jodi I thought you were at work. Hey, um—

Lisa Well, I'm at lunch right now

Jodi Oh, okay. Who was it that told me? Oh, Maria [Del La Rosa], she said that, um, someone had told her that you had said online last night that I was supportive of the site and I don't want to give people that impression because I can't support the site right now as long as you guys are collecting money. Because it should be—

Lisa No we didn't—

Jodi Huh?

Lisa No, we didn't say you supported it. We said that you weren't - not - you didn't tell us to take it down which is what everyone else is saying.

Jodi Oh. Well, I don't mind the site being there. But what I do mind is like that Jason is collecting money and that this corporation thing and that he's promoting it as if something that I want - because I really don't. I want the collection of money to stay within my family. And I think that if he really did support me he would just use all that traffic and energy and momentum that he's building and just direct it toward the Appellate Fund, which is where it should be going to begin with. And remember when you and I were like first getting together with these ideas, it was more about how we can promote the Appellate Fund. But it seems like now it's gone in a different direction. But, I just, that's the only —

Lisa So if we collect money, are you saying that you don't want it?

Jodi Yaah. No-no-no — I'm not saying that. I'm saying that I don't want other people outside of my family to be accepting money on my behalf. Because it takes away from the fundraising that my family is trying to do for me, for one, and for two, with the Corporation, we don't really know where that money is ultimately going to go, because it can go wherever the board members want it to go. And, as I told Jason, for example, if you guys vote to have an ice cream party with it, then you can. And he said that's right. But with the Appellate Fund, it's in the trust fund and irrevocable trust so you can't have it go anywhere else. [unintelligible] trust it

Lisa Well, well — we're not going to do that though.

Jodi Well, I know. But the point is that if you wanted to you could. If you want to reward your hard work with like a trip to Vegas you know, or something. If you [unintelligible] wanna or something—

Lisa No. I mean, but we're not gonna do that though. And that's why we have a board because, so, for that oversight.

Jodi Well, I know that's true but I was just thinking if someone were on that for example and they everyone wants to vote to like going to cruise, for example. And then one persons like, "Hey that's not right. This money is for Jodi's appeals. And that's not right." And then people are mad and then people just have to vote that person off the board and then they can do what they want with money. That's how it works. I'm not saying that's going to happen but the problem that when people donate to a cause they believe in then, they wanna know where the moneys gonna go. But at this point they don't know where it's gonna go unless they donate to the trust. It can only go to there — to [unintelligible]

Lisa No but we have to [unintelligible] we, but we have to report our financials and where it's going. So—

Jodi Yah.

Lisa Then I must be—

Jodi I haven't [unintelligible] your bylaws but they're, you know. I dunno — I just, I don't feel, I don't feel right with it. I don't feel comfortable with it. I know you guys have worked really hard on it and I'm sorry it's gotten this far, but—

Lisa So you don't even want to look at the bylaws or — ?

Jodi Well, I don't — really haven't seen the bylaws. I, I honestly, I don't want to be involved with it. Because I just feel it takes away from the efforts that my other friends and family have been trying to get the fund going to try to get me an attorney. Um, you know, I just—I feel like it's taken away from that and that's the problem. The other thing I'm uncomfortable with is that Jason has just done this without my consent. [unintelligible] “Hey you guys, Jodi's not quite comfortable with this yet, but we're trying to explain [unintelligible] to understand what's going on and we're doing [unintelligible]. [unintelligible] on there an lies. “Jodi supports us 100%.” And I haven't. I've never said that. So the fact that he just lies about that makes me not trust him, you know? It's like if you're going to lie about that what else are you doing, you know? And then he registered the site in my name and I never said to register my name. And he puts Perryville's physical address on there? That, that's just, that could get me into some, I dunno, that could potentially cause problems for me. So I know he took that off, but still, you know, it's just, I think it's just the fact that—I really wanted to support Jason. He has a lot of talent and everything, but I can't. He [unintelligible] slams Pandora, he slams Maria, he slams SJ, he slams Ben, he slams Maria De La Rosa. I'm like, what?

Lisa No, but they all slammed us first though!

Jodi I know, but, I never said [unintelligible]—

Lisa They called us thieves and liars and stealing before [unintelligible]

Jodi [unintelligible] Well I dunno so much about what happened between him and Pandora and Maria and everything but he, he straight up just said a whole bunch of like, he dragged out records on people and humiliated them and I just, I dunno, it's just. And then my art, like he—he doesn't care about me. He slammed my art because he doesn't like SJ. Like he still, like he so blinded by his dislike for SJ that he will throw my art under the bus just to get to SJ. He doesn't care if it affects me. And he doesn't care if affects my family and you know, their ability to travel to my trial. So, I dunno know, it's just. I don't — Everything says don't trust Jason. Like, why was he so intent about having control over the money when my aunt started to — he, he coerced my aunt into giving her the password to the Paypal, giving him the password to my Paypal, which is weird, like, no one else needed that just to put it on the web site. You just need the code. But he wanted to be, he wanted more than that. Like every time he's asking for more and more and more. And now he's—

Lisa No. Well, that's what I'm talkin' about. I'm— Yer just getting all the wrong information. He wanted the password because he [unintelligible] to put, like a banner in there so it would look professional and—

Jodi I know, well—

Lisa I mean, everybody's just twistin' everything up.

Jodi Well, the problem though is that I told him, I told him this directly on the phone, the problem with you having that email is that now you get the email notifications and you're not supposed to be getting them. And [unintelligible]

Lisa Why though.

Jodi [unintelligible]

Lisa I know, but we fixed all that. We complied with everything you guys wanted. And then you still took it away. So, I mean, we got everything straight before you took the domain away. — — — Are you still there?
